5 Month Rule
I understand that if my past school I-20 and SEVIS record are transferred to UW, U.S. law requires that I enroll for and begin classes within a strict 5-month window.

Declining Admission & the 5 Month Rule
I understand that if my past school I-20 is transferred to UW, but I then decline my admission, I am not eligible for a SEVIS Transfer.

   a. UW will attempt to return the I-20 to my previous school. I understand this attempt requires a support letter from my past school, and approval by the Student and Exchange Visitor Program
   b. I understand a successful return is not guaranteed, and any record that can't be returned will be terminated for "failure to enroll" which can negatively affect U.S. visa applications and border crossings.

Deferring Admission & the 5 Month Rule
I understand that if my past school I-20 is transferred to UW, but I then request my admission be deferred to a start date beyond the U.S. legal 5-month limit, I am not eligible for a SEVIS Transfer

   a. I understand UW will attempt to return the I-20 & SEVIS record to my previous school. I understand this attempt requires a support letter from my past school, and approval by the Student and Exchange Visitor Program
   b. I understand a successful return is not guaranteed, and any record that can't be returned will be terminated for “failure to enroll” which can negatively affect U.S. visa applications and border crossings.
   c. I understand that I must notify GEMS and request a new initial I-20 with a new SEVIS ID number for any deferred admission past the 5 month legal limit.

I have read the provided information, understand the possible negative consequences if I fail to enroll within the 5 month legal limit, and I request a transfer I-20 (check box to confirm) ☐
Section 5: Change of Other Nonimmigrant Status to F-1 Student Status

Surname/Primary Name: ___________________________ Given Name(s): ___________________________
Your UW Student Number ___________________________

1. What is your current visa status in the U.S.? ___________________________
The I-20 documents for your change of status will be issued by the UW Graduate School, Seattle Campus.

2. Decide whether a Change of Status is the right decision for you.
Review the information on Change of Nonimmigrant Status provided by International Student Services (link below). It is important that you have made the final decision to study in F-1 status before you upload this form by reading this information carefully and, if necessary, consulting with your immigration attorney:
http://iss.washington.edu/procedures/change-status

3. Consider your options. There are two ways of gaining a new nonimmigrant status.
Note: we will issue the same I-20 regardless of which option you choose. This section is for information purposes only.

   Option A: Travel and Re-entry.
   Leave the U.S., apply for a new visa at a U.S. consulate, and reenter the U.S. with the new visa and other relevant documents. You will gain your new status when you are admitted into the U.S.

   Option B: Change Status in the U.S. (USCIS Application).
   Submit an application to the U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) for a change of status. This option allows you to change your nonimmigrant status while remaining in the U.S. With this option you may gain the new status but you will not receive a new visa; visas are only issued outside the U.S.
